

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

BRENT BAILEY

Brent is a registered Professional Engineer having received his Bachelor and Master Degrees from the University of Utah. He studied Environmental Policy and Management at Denver University and has a master's degree in that field. He has worked as a consulting engineer addressing a variety of civil engineering matters and worked with mining companies engaged in mining and environmental matters. He retired in 2010 but continued to work as a consultant until 2018.

He is originally from Idaho where his family was involved in ranching. Brent married his high school sweetheart and has three adult daughters living in Colorado. Brent's family moved into Heritage Hills in 1997.

Brent's interests include golf, skiing, hiking, pickleball, photography, and tai chi but a recent health issue has required curtailment of most of these activities. He is a member and supporter of the National Ataxia Foundation. Brent shares with all the Heritage Hills Metro Board members an interest in maintaining and, where possible, enhancing the Heritage Hills infrastructure. He is interested in seeing Heritage Hill's residents utilize the community amenities and finds it particularly rewarding to see families and children using the playground equipment. Brent has been serving on the Heritage Hills Metro Board since 2014.

CHRISTINE BIERNAT

Christine has been happily married for over 31 years, and is the proud mom of 4 adult children. She is a graduate of the University of San Diego with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration. Christine has lived in the southeast Denver area since 1981, and has been a Realtor with Coldwell Banker since 2004.

She has served in numerous volunteer positions including 8 years on the Wildcat Ridge HOA board. She has served as the Wildcat Ridge swim team volunteer coordinator, as well as the St Thomas More and Xavier University parents' advisory board.

Christine moved to Heritage Hills in May of 2017 and was excited to get involved. Working on the Metro District board has allowed Christine to combine her experience as a Realtor and a community representative to promote decisions which will add to the overall value of our neighborhood

ANN HARGETT

Ann Hargett is a Heritage Hills Metropolitan District board director and currently serves as Treasurer. She is a retired finance and business operations professional with 30+ years of business experience. As Treasurer, she focuses on fiscal responsibility and sound stewardship of the community's financial resources.

In 2015, Ann retired after a 28-year career at CH2M HILL where she served in various accounting, financial planning, and business operations roles. Prior to retirement, she served as a Finance Director. Since retirement, Ann has become involved in community organizations and currently serves as Treasurer of the Lone Tree Arts Center Guild. She has served as an Advisory Board Member to Safe Haven for Newborns, a member of the Living & Aging Well in Lone Tree Ad Hoc Committee, and a board member of the Heritage Hills HOA.

Ann and her husband moved to Heritage Hills in 2005. In her free time, she enjoys traveling, walks through the neighborhood, reading, cooking, and spending time with her three grandchildren.

JOYCE LEW

Joyce Lew and her husband have lived in Heritage Hill since 2004 and is honored to serve on the Heritage Hills Metro Board since 2014 and for the past two years as its President.

Joyce has 10 years' experience as an associate economist with the Conference Board - a non-partisan non-profit economic research organization and more than 20 years as an IT systems analyst and project manager in various fields including 14 years with a major northeast hospital system.

As a member and chairperson of the Heritage Hills Social Committee for more than 6 years, events such as 'Meet M. & Mrs. Bunny', 'Meet Mr. & Mrs. Claus' and the 'Ragamuffin Parade' were implemented, along with an annual adult holiday party, a catered Family Fun pool party and a summer evening event by the pool.

Since 2013, she has co-chaired the Living and Aging in Lone Tree Ad Hoc Committee, a non-profit which works with the City of Lone Tree to provide educational and social opportunities for its seniors.

Prior to moving to Colorado, she was elected twice to the Board of Trustees of the Inc. Village of East Williston, NY. East Williston is similar in size and scope to Heritage Hills and includes a library, fire department and DPW.

When not volunteering, Joyce can be found on tennis courts, at the rec center, traveling and enjoying her adorable grandson.

DARRON TUCKER

Darron Tucker is a Heritage Hills Metropolitan District board director and currently serves as a board member on the Heritage Hills HOA.

Darron currently is a Regional Sales Director at T-Mobile (formerly Sprint) for their wireline/network services business unit. Darron is a sales and marketing leader with a proven track record of success. Currently manages over $40M of billed annual revenue. His focus is on leading teams, negotiating large global contracts, vendor and channel management. Darron has recently provided some consulting services to small business owners.

Darron also loves sports. He has been involved with Positive Coaching Alliance for several years working directly with the Executive Director on initiatives, training and tools for coaches. He also coached basketball at Valor Christian High School (Assistant Girls Varsity) in 2014 – 2015 when they won their first State Championship. He coached 6 seasons for Premier Basketball Club and coached at Skyview High School (boys JV program). Darron is also a certified High School basketball official.

Darron has volunteered with Special Olympics, Kaboom, the Down Syndrome walk and CHSAA. In addition, spent time helping the Denver North girls golf coach start up their program.

Darron has a Bachelor of Science from Eastern Michigan. In addition, has two security certifications - Zscaler Certification (Sales Professional / Engineering) and Fortinet – NSE 3 - Network Security Associate.

Darron, his wife (30 years) and 3 kids moved to Heritage Hills in 2012. His son played hockey and golf at a DIII college in the Boston area and his twin daughters played ice hockey, basketball and golf. Darron has a passion for all sports and he and his wife love walks through the neighborhood.
